2018 Season in Full Swing
Art and Culture on Governors Island
Late Fridays through September 14
Jacob Hashimoto on Governors Island
Jacob Hashimoto on Governors Island
Presented in partnership with

The Film Society of Lincoln Center

Outdoor Film Series

Escape in New York, June 8
Desperately Seeking Susan, July 13
Ghostbusters, August 10
The Last Dragon, September 14
Expanded Environmental Education at the Urban Farm
Collective Retreats
Free kayaking - Downtown Boathouse
NEW! Summertime Skating w/ Mel's Rink
Upcoming Events

Figment Festival, June 23-24
Swim around the Island, June 23
Porch Stomp, June 23
Family Fun Day, July 15
New York City Poetry Festival, July 28
Jazz Age Lawn Party, August 25-26
Tenant Update
Largest pool of students ever this year with over 600
Plans for expansion which will add capacity for additional 110-125 students
90% of seniors graduating with over 90% applied and accepted to universities around the country
Students spoke at UN World Oceans Conference about their work in restoring oyster reefs to New York Harbor
Over 300 participants joined June 10 5K race on Governors Island in support of school
• Interior and exterior renovation of Building 110 underway with anticipated completion Fall/Winter 2018
• Project will double number of artists served through LMCC residency program
• Renovation will add gallery and rehearsal spaces and increase opportunities for public programming
New Projects
20 Nolan Park RFP

- Trust seeks design services to renovate and activate Nolan Park house
- Purpose is to pilot year-round programming, research space and fellows housing for art, cultural and environmental organizations
- Key dates:
  - RFP Release Date: June 12, 2018
  - Due Date: July 6, 2018